Kevin G. Cronk joined RCK in 2016, after working as a prosecutor in the Will County State's Attorney's Office. Mr. Cronk is an Associate Attorney at RCK who concentrates in the areas of personal injury and criminal defense.

Mr. Cronk received his Bachelor's Degree from The University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. He went on to earn his Juris Doctorate from The John Marshall Law School in Chicago. While in law school, Mr. Cronk received a prestigious CALI Award, denoting the most excellent student in an area of law. Mr. Cronk excelled at trial work and participated in both moot court and trial advocacy competitions.

Upon graduating from law school, Mr. Cronk became an Assistant State's Attorney for Will County. He has prosecuted thousands of cases for the People of Illinois, won over 100 bench trials and established a stellar jury trial record. Mr. Cronk uses his trial experience and his familiarity with the court system to better serve his clients.

Mr. Cronk is a member of both the Illinois State Bar Association and the Will County Bar Association.

Mr. Cronk is a lifelong resident of Will County and a graduate of Romeoville High School, where he was a varsity football player, editor-in-chief of his school newspaper and a member of the drama guild. Having served the People of Illinois as a prosecutor, he is honored to continue serving them as a private attorney. When he is not practicing law, Mr. Cronk enjoys spending time with his wife and their rescue dog, Hagar.
